The mission of HSLC is to enhance the development of high school leaders and motivate students to help realize the value of effective leadership and to incorporate these skills into their future endeavors.

While University employees and trained student staff may be accompanying them student participants, it is unlikely that those persons will be able to provide constant supervision. It is expected, however, that students will abide by university policies and regulations, and all instructions presented by University staff members and trained student staff members, whether written or verbal.

In exchange for being granted the opportunity to attend HSLC 2009, I understand that I am expected to remain at the site and participate to the best of my ability, in all programs, activities, and sessions. I will also abide by all HSLC 2009 policies.

HSLC is an substance-free conference. As an HSLC participant, I agree to abide by the substance-free policy, and I understand that if I violate this policy (or any others as stated above), I may be sent home at my own expense.

I understand and agree that if for any reason I have to leave the conference, my involvement with HSLC ends at the time that I leave HSLC.

I have carefully read and understand completely and clearly the provisions stated above and agree to be bound thereby.
